SUBJECT: VINCENT TABBACHINO (deceased)

REQUESTER: Mr. Josh Margolin, ABC News

BACKGROUND: The subject, VINCENT TABBACHINO (deceased), was a former Guttenberg, New Jersey, Councilman, retired police officer, real estate broker and accountant. Tabbachino was tried and convicted on charges of federal bribery, attempted extortion, and money laundering. The investigation on this case spanned the years 1989 through 1993.

In 2008, an additional investigation involving Tabbachino was initiated. This investigation, entitled "Operation Bid Rig," involved bribes to city officials in the form of political donations in exchange for expediting approvals on projects such as new construction of a hotel or high rise as well as assistance in zoning obstacles. In 2010, Tabbachino was convicted of attempted extortion, bribery, and money laundering in what resulted in the largest corruption case in New Jersey's history.

FOIPA #: 1259813-1

Subject: Any and all records pertaining to Charles Keating.

Date of Request: December 4, 2014.

Requester(s): Mark Albert

Litigation: No

Background: Mr. Albert has requested any and all material pertaining to Charles Keating. Material proposed for release concerns a corruption of public officials investigation of five US Senators and Charles Keating's Lincoln Savings and Loan Association of California and American Continental Corporation. The case garnered extensive media coverage in the mid to late 1980's. The Senators are John McCain, John Glenn, Alan Cranston, Donald Riegle, and Dennis Deconcini. Of the five, Alan Cranston and John Glenn are deceased and John McCain is still in office. Keating was a significant financial contributor to the Senators, and it was believed that they tried to influence the Federal Home Loan Bank Board (FHLBB) which was investigating Keating's companies.

Background: Mr. Albert has requested any and all material pertaining to Charles Keating. Material proposed for release concerns a corruption of public officials investigation of five US Senators and Charles Keating's Lincoln Savings and Loan Association of California and American Continental Corporation. The case garnered extensive media coverage in the mid to late 1980's. The Senators are John McCain, John Glenn, Alan Cranston, Donald Riegle, and Dennis Deconcini. Of the five, Alan Cranston and John Glenn are deceased and John McCain is still in office. Keating was a significant financial contributor to the Senators, and it was believed that they tried to influence the Federal Home Loan Bank Board (FHLBB) which was investigating Keating's companies.

Subject: George Homer Ryan

Requester: Patrick McCrancy with Better Government Association-reports on news stories uncovering waste, fraud, and misuse of tax dollars in Illinois government. His work has appeared in the Chicago Tribune, the Chicago Sun-Times, the State Journal-Register, and television stations across Illinois.

FOIPA#: 1325658-0

Date of Request: March 19, 2015

Number of Pages to Be Released: [redacted]

b5

Background of Request: George Homer Ryan was born February 24, 1934 and is still alive today. Mr. Ryan was Illinois Secretary of State from 1991 through 1999 and then became the 39th Governor of Illinois from 1999 through 2003. Mr. Ryan's political career was marred by a scandal involving the illegal sale of government licenses, contracts and leases by state employees during his prior service as Secretary of State. Mr. Ryan chose not to run for reelection in 2002. Seventy-nine former state officials and lobbyists were charged in the FBI investigation dubbed, "Operation Safe Road", and seventy six were convicted.

FOIPA#: 1335185-0

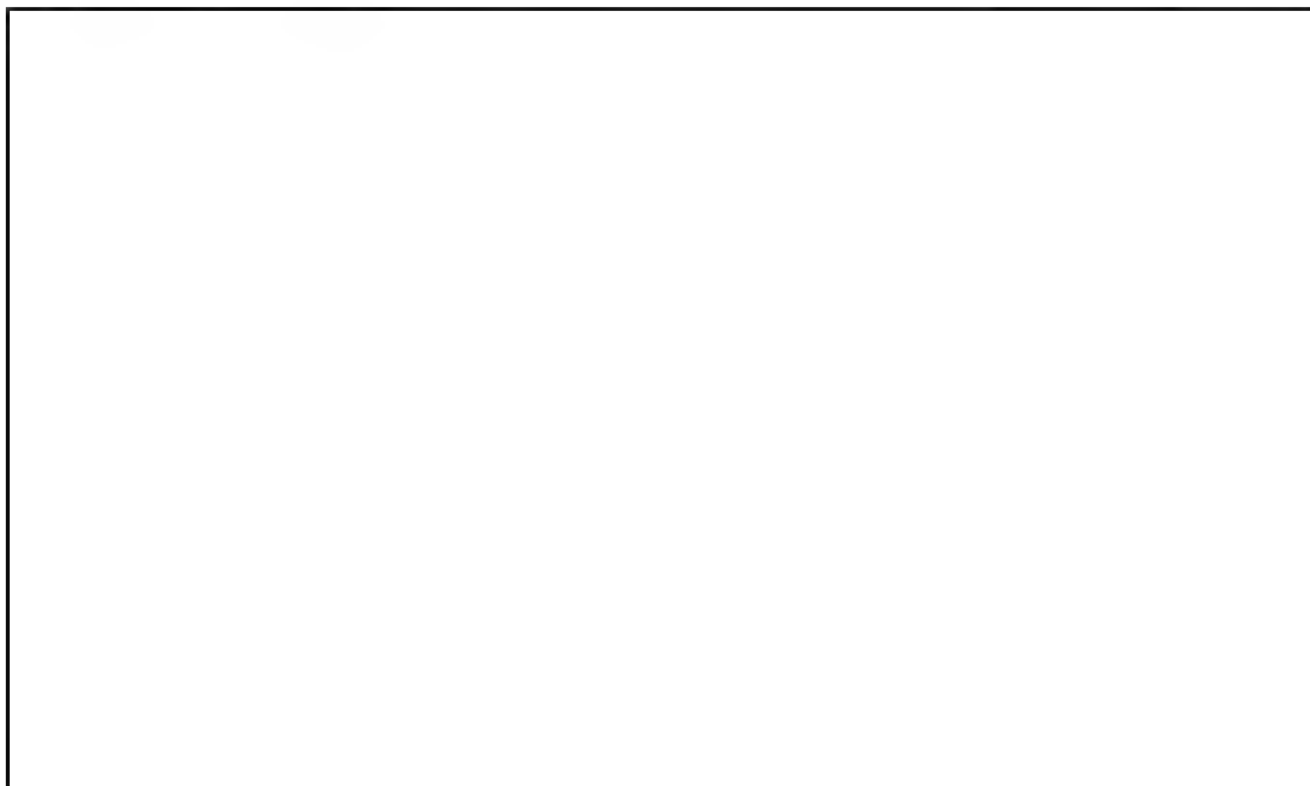

SUBJECT: Jimmy Dykes (Hostage Negotiation)

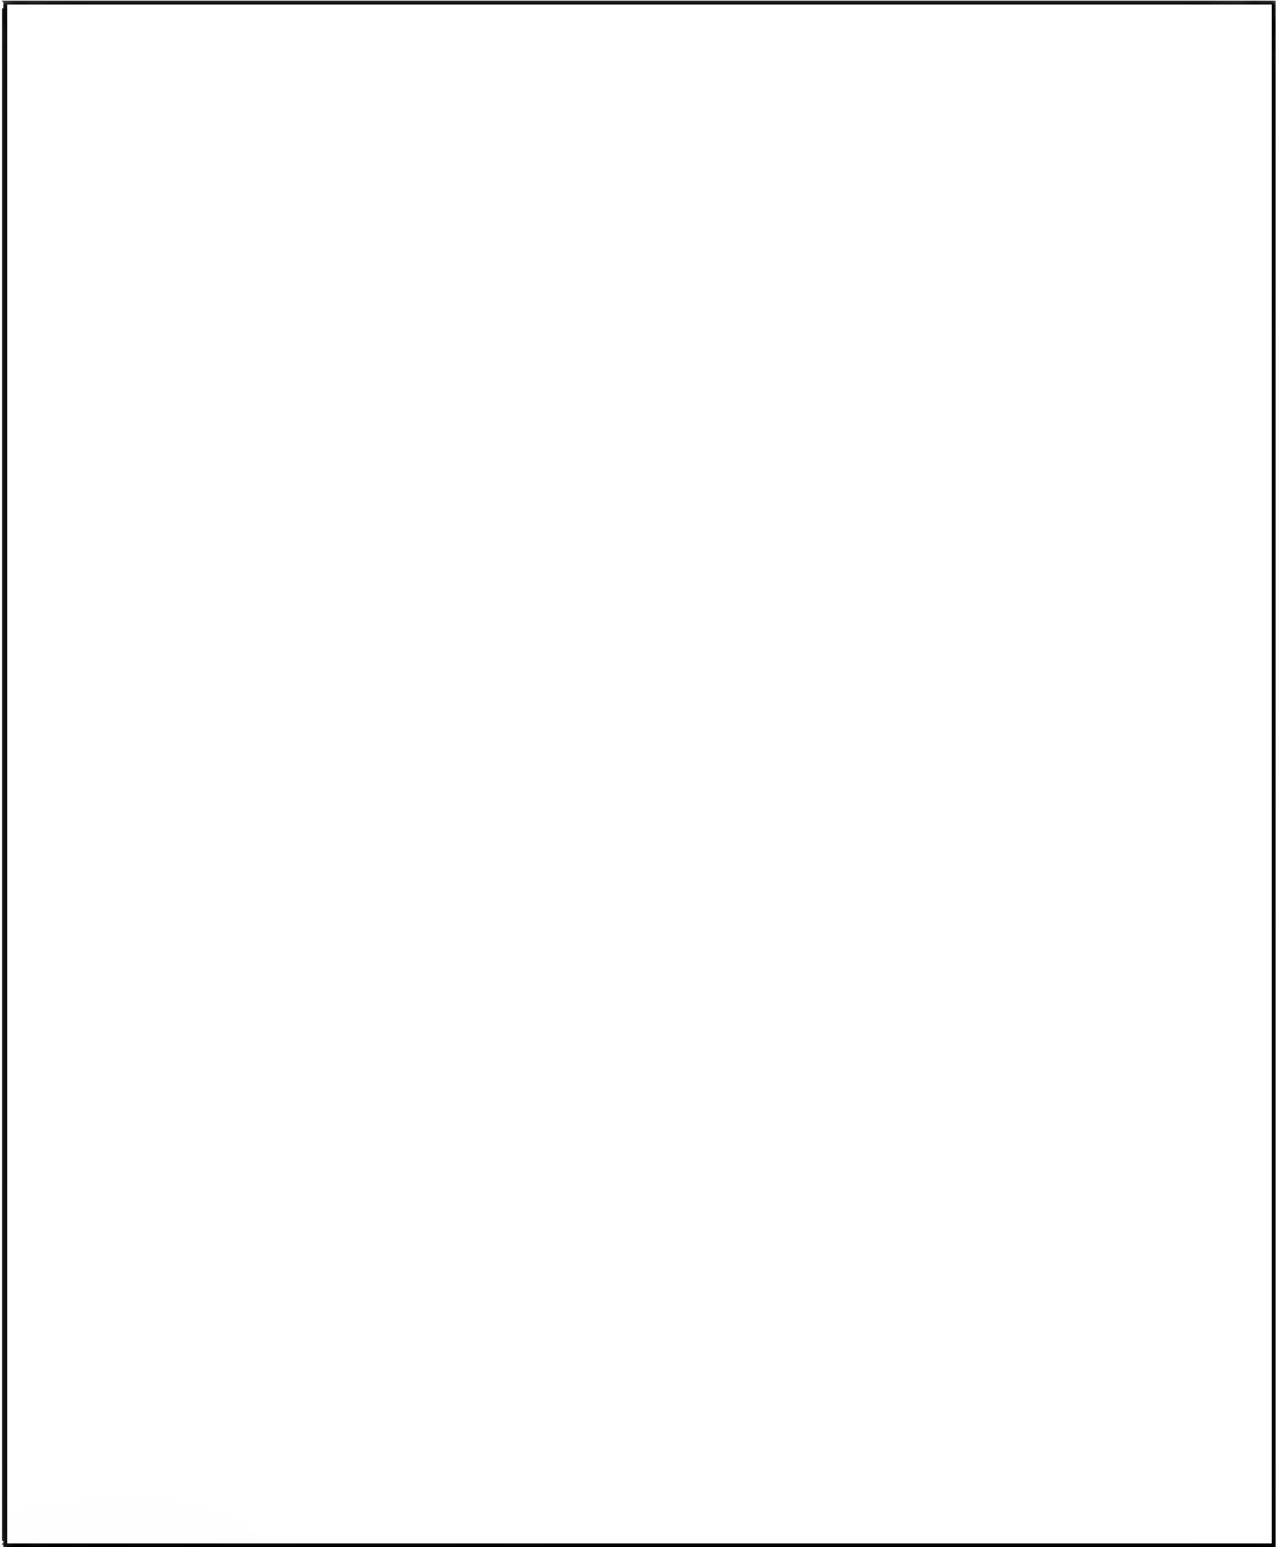

REQUESTER: Gabriel Rubin (Research Associate at Georgetown University)

BACKGROUND: On January 29, 2013, Jimmy Lee Dykes boarded a school bus in Midland City, Alabama and demanded the bus driver hand over two children as hostages whom he would not harm and would later set free. Dykes specified he needed the hostages in order to force powers to listen to his story. The bus driver, Charles Albert Poland, refused to comply with Dykes' demands, and Dykes shot Poland dead. Dykes then kidnapped the first child within his reach, a six-year-old autistic boy named Ethan Gilman. Dykes barricaded Gilman and himself in an underground bunker near his home that is commonly used as a tornado shelter.

The FBI negotiated with the subject for nearly a week, with the primary goal of facilitating the release of Gilman. As Dykes became increasingly agitated and persistently refused to release Gilman, on February 4, 2013, the FBI's Hostage Rescue Team (HRT) and local authorities executed a deliberate assault operation on the bunker. During the assault, Gilman was rescued and Dykes was killed.

High Viz Memo

Subject: Chalabi, Ahmad

FOIPA#: 1339441-0

Requester: Ms. Beryl C.D. Lipton (MuckRock)

Date of Request: November 3, 2015

Background of Request: This request pertains to records regarding Mr. Ahmad Chalabi, a wealthy Iraqi politician and creator of the Iraqi National Congress (INC). In 1977, Mr. Chalabi founded the Petra Bank in Jordan. Mr. Chalabi was convicted of false accounting, fraud and embezzlement after the bank failed in 1989. In 2004, Mr. Chalabi and other members of the INC were investigated for fraud involving the exchange of Iraqi currency, grand theft and other charges. In the same year, it was widely reported that Mr. Chalabi provided U.S. intelligence secrets to Iran, including the fact that the United States has broken Iranian intelligence codes.

Mr. Chalabi served as interim Minister of Oil in Iraq in 2005 and Deputy Prime Minister from 2005 – 2006. He became a controversial figure in America in the early 2000s, mostly due the INC having provided much of the information on which United States Intelligence agencies based its condemnation of then Iraqi President Saddam Hussein. Much of the information provided by the INC turned out to be fabricated, subsequently leading to a falling out between Mr. Chalabi and the United States Government. Before the Iraq War, Mr. Chalabi maintained close political and business relationships with members of the U.S. Government, especially those within the Pentagon. Mr. Chalabi died on November 3, 2015 at his home in Baghdad. At the time of his death, he was a member of the Iraqi Parliament, serving as the chairman of the Finance Committee.
